

Niso Abuaf's Student Testimonials

- i. Fin 340.“His attitude towards learning.
- ii. Practical.
- iii. Great professor. Good man.
- iv. He is a smart, knowledgeable professor.
- v. Really knows what he is talking about.
- vi. Real life perspective.
- vii. Learning atmosphere.
- viii. Personality, willingness to help learn.
- ix. Real life relations.
- x. Personality, stories.
- xi. Amazing professor.
- xii. I liked the challenging prof, the learning atmosphere.
- xiii. He was very interesting, enthusiastic and very smart. Relayed that to the class.
- xiv. Fin 652. The professor actually helped us go through some of the math and quantitative stuff in this course, which I found very helpful.
- xv. Real world knowledge and experience.
- xvi. Ability to combine this course with the real world.
- xvii. Straightforward, professional. When I met him outside of class, he was interested in how I find the course, how I understand it. That was really great.
- xviii. Fin 634. The teaching skill.
- xix. The content.
- xx. Gives many examples to explain.
- xxi. The myfinancelab assignments are helpful to understand the course.
- xxii. His ability to combine regular finance with entrepreneurial finance.
- xxiii. His experience. His way of discussing. The real-life examples.
- xxiv. People who want to learn can take a lot of knowledge from this professor.
- xxv. Sympathy, enthusiasm.
- xxvi. Clarity of the explanation and patience. Humor. Passion.
- xxvii. Fin 649. Professional experiences. Related course to current news.
- xxviii. He is really professional.
- xxix. Easy going.
- xxx. Real-life experience sharing
- xxxi. Eco 622.Myeconlab usage. Strong emphasis on outside readings and research.
- xxxii. His enthusiasm about subject matter and consistent application of class content to real world scenarios.
- xxxiii. Global perspective.
- xxxiv. Professor is quite passionate about topic, applies real world examples that make the points clearer. Excellent professor.
- xxxv. Professor made class interesting, very knowledgeable, real-life examples.

- xxxvi. Myeconlab was the best way to administer homework; we also had very good discussions relating the course readings and the real world.
- xxxvii. Very enthusiastic, very funny. Fair with students' needs. "